

SYLLABUS
Course:	Special education
Subject:	Disability studies
Department	Department of Pedagogy
Study Level	Master degree
Semester	Spring
ECTS Credits	2 (15hrs)
Teaching methods	Lecture (15hrs)
Content	Lectures: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Theoretical background of inclusive education. Research findings on their effectiveness.2. Perspectives on Disability: definitions, language, and models of disability Cultures of Exclusion: historical overview of social-cultural responses to body-minds that are associated with disability today.3. Cultures of Inclusion: the development of inclusive orientations toward disability, disability rights movement, independent living movement.4. An Aesthetic of disability.5. Contemplating the (In)visibility of Disability6. Overview of How Schools Respond to Student Diversity: individual approach to difference, pluralism as social practice, diversity as curricular practice, and pedagogies for liberation7. Definitions of Disability in Schools, labelling8. Addressing Disability in Inclusive Practice: awareness programs.
Grading policy	The method of calculating the grade for a lecture is as follows: 80% essay, 20% active participation.
References	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Adams R., Reiss B., Serlin D. (eds.) (2015) Keywords for Disability Studies, New York University Press.2. Baglieri S. (2022) Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom: Critical Practices for Embracing Diversity in Education (3rd ed.), Routledge.3. Gabel S. L. (2005) Disability Studies in Education: Readings in Theory and Method, Peter Lang Publishing Inc.4. Goodley D. (2016) Disability Studies: An Interdisciplinary Introduction, SAGE Publications Ltd.5. Valle J. W., Connor D.J. (2019) Rethinking Disability: A Disability Studies Approach to Inclusive Practices, Taylor & Francis Ltd6. Disability Studies Quarterly (DSQ)

Prerequisites	Language: English, CEFR level B1 or higher
	Other:
Teacher	Assoc Prof. Anna Zamkowska
	Location:	ul. Malczewskiego 22 room 109
	Email:	a.zamkowska@urad.edu.pl
	Phone:	(48) 48 361 78 41
Tuition fees	do not apply for EU/EEA citizens or exchange students	